Amidst the towering ponderosa pines, Blue Bell Lodge is the perfect hideaway retreat with a guest ranch flavor offering a Western experience that's sure to charm the boots right off ya!

Accommodations range from rustic cabins to charming hand-crafted log cabins with fireplaces and open-beamed ceilings. All cabins have been recently renovated and are equipped with kitchens or kitchens. Every cabin has a fire pit outside, so you can end your day like the real cowpokes did - telling tall tales around the campfire!

If you're planning a family reunion, the White Buffalo Room could be your ticket to a great event. The Blue Bell General Store is close by for picking up supplies.

Located along Galena Creek, Legion Lake Lodge dates back to 1913 when Custer State Park was a game preserve in the Custer State Forest. At that time, the area was leased by the local American Legion Post, and thus, the basis for the lodge's name. It's a choice spot for summer picnics, lazy days at the beach and adventurous treks into the wilderness. Rent a mountain bike and begin exploring the forest. The Centennial Trail is right out the back door!

A variety of recently renovated, comfortable family-size cabins are nestled in the forest surrounding the lodge. Some cabins are sleeping cabins only while others feature kitchens or for every generation!

Sylvan Lake holds the designation of Custer State Park's "Crown Jewel." In 1895, a Victorian-style hotel opened its doors on the shores of Sylvan Lake. The current hotel was opened in 1937 and the new wing was added in 1991. The hotel lobby, guestrooms and cabins were renovated in 2008. The hotel features cozy lodge rooms, a lobby, patio, lounge and restaurant. Several rustic cabins in the area are nestled among the pine and spruce forest. Sylvan Lake Lodge offers sleeping cabins, cabins with kitchens or kitchens, as well as beautiful guestrooms and suites. It's a favorite spot for honeymooners who want a secluded mountain cabin and folks looking for the advantages of a more traditional hotel room.
