

REUNION CABIN

On The Grounds Of The State Game Lodge & Overlooking Coolidge Creek
In Custer State Park

Nestled near the State Game Lodge within beautiful Custer State Park, the luxurious 4,200 square-foot Reunion Cabin is the perfect retreat for both family reunions and corporate clients. Entering this tranquil hideaway, one is impressed with the wonderful spaciousness and the casual elegance of the surroundings. The Great Room, with ceilings that almost reach the sky, has a beautiful stone fireplace - built with actual stone from the region - a 42-inch flat screen TV and a Blu-ray player. While each window provides a picture perfect view that may include buffalo, big horn sheep, deer or more, you can enjoy nature's splendor by walking out onto the 560 square-foot secluded back cedar deck through doors that flank the fireplace. Overlooking Coolidge Creek, you can relax on the patio furniture or cook up dinner on the gas grill. The front porch features beautiful pine furniture, including a swing!

The fully-equipped kitchen boasts stainless steel appliances that include a double-door refrigerator with an ice and water dispenser in the door, and a lower freezer drawer; a 6-burner gas stove with oven; and an automatic dishwasher. A coffeemaker, toaster and blender are also provided for your use. While the bar seats five, the stationary wood table seats up to 24.

Located in each corner of the cabin are four large, uniquely furnished bedrooms, complete with separate baths and 32-inch flat screen TVs. Two bedrooms have gas fireplaces, whirlpool tubs and separate showers, as well as outside patios. These bedrooms provide sleeping for 16 and feature pillow-top beds with duvet bedcovers and wonderful fluffy pillows. Each has its own heating and air conditioning control. Located above the Great Room, a huge loft provides seating and sleeping accommodations for another eight people minimum, with two sets of bunk beds and a queen-sized bed. There's also comfy furniture to sit back and enjoy the 32-inch flat screen TV that's also equipped with a Blu-ray player. There's also a selection of DVDs to watch and books to read.

With the sound of the water flowing in Coolidge Creek, it couldn't be more serene and beautiful. The utter peacefulness of the area and its surroundings will enchant families, friends and business associates alike.

What a perfect getaway! And, it all says welcome!

Enjoy nature's splendor right out your back door on the 560 square foot cedar deck. You're close enough to hear the water flowing from Coolidge Creek and see wildlife walk by. The front porch features beautiful pine furniture including a swing!
